18:15:40 From Rachel Smith to Everyone:
    @Michelle Sibenik, I think people/companies have become more picky in selecting people for roles but I think the demand for Senior/Experienced UX people are always in demand but companies/people are less likely to train more junior hires/candidates unfortunately 18:18:07 From Michelle Sibenik to Everyone:
    Thanks for the response Rachel. I feel the same. There seems to be established roles and not enough junior to get your foot in the door.
18:19:09 From Karen Li to Everyone:
    (usability test proposal for a prototype) PM and UX Designer are not align with the usability test approach/questions, how to handle this type of situation as a UX Researcher? e.g., Designer expressed their opinion but PM messaged the researcher separately and said not agree with the Designer's approach).
